this book studies the relationship between german novelist heinrich mann and his readers the author traces mann s development by examining the interaction of his upbringing his artistic perception and the attitudes of the reading public against the background of the social and political upheaval in the early 1900s few writers have engaged themselves so actively politically as heinrich mann an investigation of the whole complex of art and politics in his life and work is beyond the scope of a single study the present study examines heinrich mann s work in terms of his response to his situation and the age this is only one aspect but none the less perhaps the most crucial because it necessarily involves the central problem of heinrich mann s work its artistic unevenness which makes appreciation and evaluation so difficult the dialectic of artistic consciousness and political conscience is thus the determining reference of this study scintillating and rather magical house of exile is an extraordinary book and a really rare accomplishment michael hoffman the times literary supplement in 1933 the author and political activist heinrich mann and his partner nelly kroeger fled nazi germany finding refuge first in the south of france and later in great despair in los angeles where nelly committed suicide in 1944 and heinrich died in 1950 born into a wealthy middle class family in lübeck heinrich was one of the leading representatives of weimar culture nelly was twenty seven years younger the adopted daughter of a fisherman and a hostess in a berlin bar as far as heinrich s family was concerned she was from the wrong side of the tracks in house of exile heinrich and nelly s story is crossed with others from their circle of friends relatives and contemporaries heinrich s brother thomas mann his sister carla their friends bertolt brecht alfred döblin and joseph roth and beyond them the writers james joyce franz kafka and virginia woolf among others evelyn juers brings this generation of exiles to life with tremendous poignancy and imaginative power in train compartments ship cabins and rented rooms the manns clung to what was left to them their bodies their minds and their books in a turbulent and self destructive era
